Hambourg, May 2.

'THE Advices from Holstein tell 'us, that the Attack of the In'trenchments of the Swedes 'near Gardingen, was made 'the 27th of last Month by the Northern 'Allies. Six Danish Regiments commanded 'by his Highness the Duke of Wirtemberg, 'who is now declared Field-Marshal-Gene'ral, gave the first Assault, and pushed on 'the Attack with such Vigour and Success, 'that the Swedes after an obstinate Re'sistance, were forced to quit their Intrench'ments with the Loss of some Hundreds of 'Men killed or taken Prisoners, and to re'tire into their fortified Lines near Ton'ningen. These Letters say, 'tis not to be 'imagined what Works and Coupures the 'Swedes had contrived and cast up, on a 'Spot of Ground so well fortified by Nature. 'When the said Intrenchments were attack'ed, 8000 Muscovites followed by several 'thousand Saxons approached them like'wise, and notwithstanding the great Num'ber of Bombs, Carcasses, Grenadoes &c, 'showered upon the Swedes in those Works, 'the Resistance they made was very 'brave and vigorous. We are told, that 'assoon as Collonel Bassewitz, who lately 'went from hence, got into Tonningen, 'the Swedes laid aside all Thoughts of an 'Accomodation; and 'tis known he was 'charged with secret Dispatches from Count 'Welling, by which Count Steinbock was 'exhorted and animated to defend himself 'desperately and to wait the last extremity, 'rather than yield himself Prisoner; be'cause there was yet Hope of Deliverance 'by a Diversion elsewhere. Yesterday ar'rived 2000 Muscovites in the Territory 'of Hambourg, who after having received 'Refreshments sent out to them by our Ma'gistrates, pursued their March in very 'good Order towards the Country of Ey'derstad. 'Tis said they will speedily be fol'lowed by 3000 others, and so Pomerania 'and Mecklenbourg will be intirely freed 'from them. Several Passengers report, that 'Vice-Admiral Sehested has taken Collonel 'Bassewitz who was coming hither in a Ves'sel, and carried him Prisoner to Husum, 'notwithstanding he had the King of Den'mark's Passport about him.

Hague, May 5. 'The Ratification of the 'Treaty of Peace between France and this 'State is not yet exchanged, because the E'lector of Bavaria's Act of Renunciation of 'the Spanish Low-Countries, which their 'High Mightynesses stipulated for, is not 'yet arrived. This furnishes Matter of De'liberation to the States-General, and of 'Reflection to the Publick, many suspecting 'that the Court of France have created this 'Incident to gain Time, and put off the 'Exchange of the Ratification till the 1st 'of June, to see whether the Emperour and 'Empire will accept the Conditions of Peace 'offered them, during that Interval, or not; 'and that if they will not accept them, then 'the said Court may refuse to execute the 'Peace signed with this State, which would 'extremely embarrass these Provinces, be'ing by the Dismission and Withdrawing of 'above 50000 Men from the Spanish Ne'therlands disarmed and out of a Capacity of 'making War, at least without taking new 'Measures. This makes us expect with Im'patience the Return of the Express which 'the Ministers Plenipotentiaries of France 'have sent to their Court, upon the Remon'strances made to them touching the Delay of 'the foresaid Act of Renunciation. 'Tis advi'sed from Vienna, that the Emperour was 'strangely surprized to see the Conditions of 'Peace which France offers to him and the 'Empire, that he is determined to exert his 'utmost Strength, and to venture all ra'ther than suffer himself and the Empire 'to be so used; and that for this end he de'signs to put himself at the Head of the 'Army. We have an Account, that Count 'Sinzendorf was the 27th past at Ratisbon, 'so that he might get to Vienna by the 1st 'of this Month, and consequently within 6 'or 8 Days from this time the Baron de 'Kirchner may receive Instructions upon 'the Report which the said Count shall have 'made verbally to the Emperour of the 'Condition in which he left Affairs at U'trecht. The Conferences which have been 'held, since the French Plenipotentiaries 'declared their Terms to the Imperialists, 'for finding Expedients and Alleviations ca'pable of engaging the Emperour and Em'pire to enter into the Peace, has hitherto 'signified nothing; on the contrary the Ple'nipotentiaries of France affirm roundly, 'that those Terms contain the ultimate Re'solution of their King, and that the Time 'prescribed will no sooner be expired, than 'Fort Kehl and Brisac will be refused to be 'given up otherwise than demolished. Ba'ron Kirchner arrived here Yesterday from 'Utrecht, whither he will go back in a few 'Days, as will also the Earl of Strafford. 'The Earl of Orrery is daily expected here 'from Brussels. The Ministers of the Electors 'of Cologne and Bavaria are not yet 'known to be arrived at Utrecht; but some 'surmise that they are either there or in 'the Neighbourhood incognito.
